

IFUT votes in favour of Public Service Agreement

Monday, September 14th, 2015

The Irish Federation of University Teachers (IFUT) has voted to accept the Public Service (Landsdowne Road) Agreement.

The result of a ballot of IFUT members, counted today, was 310 in favour and 132 against, representing a 70% 'Yes' vote.

IFUT Deputy General Secretary, Joan Donegan, said that IFUT will now cast its vote in favour of the Public Service Agreement, at a meeting of public sector unions scheduled for Wednesday of this week.
